Scott Addis landscapes at Beacon Fine Arts

An exhibit of works by abstract impressionist painter Scott Addis is at Beacon Fine Arts Gallery in Red Bank. An opening reception will be held June 10, 5-9 p.m., at the gallery, located at 61 Monmouth St.

Addis' abstract landscapes are mystical and romantic, creating a statement of artistic richness.

A native of Pennsylvania, Addis currently resides in Montreal and shows extensively throughout the U.S. and Canada. He is an artist in residence at both the Vermont

"Angst"

Studio Center in Johnson and Pouch Cove in St. John's, Newfoundland.

He is a member of the Society of Canadian Artists, the Chicago Artists Coalition, and the Northern Vermont Artists Association. He has won awards including the SOHO International Juried Art Competition, as well as the

"The Break Thumb"

Whitewater Annual Art Competition.

He has lectured on landscape painting and has mentored several emerging artists.

In his artist's statement, Addis provides insight into his work:

"My paintings are an expression of mood or emotion within a design that allows a window in for people to see what they want or need to see. Whether the work is moody, angry or brooding, joyful or exciting, restive or peaceful, the colors and brushwork allow me, as an artist, tools to both experience and express what I am feeling. These feelings come on strong, are hard even to experience, and only a glimpse of them can be translated onto the canvas."

Hours at Beacon Fine Arts are Monday, Wednesday and Thursday 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Friday 10:30 a.m. to 8 p.m., Saturday 10:30 a.m. to 9 p.m., and Sunday, 1 to 6 p.m.
