

"Passing By" by Nick Berger

Two-artist exhibit at Beacon Fine Arts

An exhibition of works by two major American artists has opened at Beacon Fine Arts Gallery in Red Bank.

The show consists of works new to the gallery by world renowned master painter of Americana Ted Jeremenko and renowned Brandywine/seascape painter Nicholas Berger.

"Morning Light" by Ted Jeremenko

The exhibit will run through Nov. 15 at the gallery, located at 61 Monmouth St. Having worked for several decades in watercolor, Berger's recent work consists of Hudson River landscapes painted in oil. In this new medium, viewers will continue to find the sensitivity reminiscent of Berger's watercolors, the beauty of his signature detail work, and the subtlety and fine nuances that continue to place his work among the best. Jeremenko's landscapes and seascapes are known for their sense of simplicity and timelessness. Frequent subjects are lighthouses, barns, cottages and village scenes and the artist's focus is on simple, elegant architecture.

Gallery hours are Monday, Wednesday and Thursday 10 a.m. - 5:30 p.m., Friday, 11 a.m. - 8 p.m., Saturday 11 a.m. - 9 p.m. and Sunday 12:30 p.m. - 6 p.m.

For information, call the gallery at (732) 936-0888.

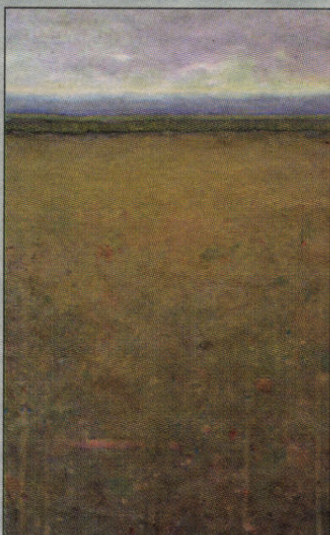

Recent works by Howell at Red Bank gallery

An exhibit of recent works by Elwood Howell will open Friday at Laurel Tracey Gallery in Red Bank.

The show of Howell's paintings will run through Nov. 30 at the gallery, located at 10 White St. An opening reception will be held Saturday, 6:30 - 9 p.m.

Howell's works revolve around a common theme of misty beaches and seascapes. The show features a new series of works on paper that are floated in custom frames. Similar to his large canvases, the works on paper have a painted edge and consist of dripped and flung color under the mist of a transparent wash of blue-gray, rose-gray and green-gray acrylics. The artist captures the diffused light and mist in blue tones with a quiet and serene effect.

The show can be previewed at www.laureltraceygallery.com by clicking current exhibition. Gallery hours are Wednesday - Saturday, 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. For more information, call (732) 224-0760.

"November View" by Elwood Howell